

Dec. 4th 1921

Dear Mother—

I hope you are well, and getting settled.

When we got here there was nobody to say Hello to, because there was a wedding going on in the East College. Mr. Weales and Miss some.

~~Body. I don't know who, (oh Miss~~ Bouffard. I just found out).

My room is in the finished wing. I sleep in the same room with five other girls, Madeline Crawford, Edna, Ruth, and Margaret Baxter, and Winnifred Baldorf.

I have most things out of my trunk and soon will have my paints to make (Christmas) Christmas cards.

Father is staying at Small's for the week-end, he bought us some coloured paper, and two scribblers and a rubber each.

There are four Catherine's here now, Catherine Cox, Catharine Hoskin, Katherine Beech, and I.

There is four napoes too. I started a little late so have to hurry.

I went to Sunday school this morning, and the other three Catherine's were all in my class.

I am going to start a letter to-morrow and write things as they come. There are some people here you didn't count that day. Elizabeth and Katherine Beech, and Chester and Harold Raper.

But I must say good-bye now, the bell has rung. With love for all,
Alice, Evelyn and Wesley
Yours lovingly
Catherine Leonard
